RE: Confirmation of Registration Certificate

Employer No: E19068006

Dear Sir/Madam,

"Confirmation of Registration" certificates are issued to businesses in South Australia that are registered with WorkCover (SA). These certificates are current and valid until the employer notifies WorkCover in writing of the cancellation of their registration.

No end or expiry date is included on these certificates as all employees considered to be workers of a particular business are covered by WorkCover until they cease to be employed.

In other states of Australia expiry dates are issued on a "Certificate of Currency". WorkCover (SA) does not issue these certificates.

Please supply a copy of this letter to any interstate business that queries your certificate and its validity. I have enclosed a copy of your "Confirmation of Registration" for this purpose.

If you or any potential employer has any queries regarding this issue please contact us on 13 18 55 or info@workcover.com

Yours sincerely
